Dear Ms. Dortch:

On November 8, 2010, Kathleen Ham and Luisa Lancetti, of T-Mobile USA, Inc. ("TMUS"), and the undersigned, counsel to TMUS, met with Zachary Katz, legal advisor to the Chairman for wireline communications, international and Internet issues, to discuss the above-captioned proceedings. The TMUS representatives emphasized that in implementing universal service and intercarrier compensation reform, the Commission should: 1) accelerate the glide path to bill and keep for non-rural areas; 2) implement immediately rules to mitigate the effects of traffic pumping; and 3) encourage the evolution of the existing circuit-switched network toward IP-enabled broadband. TMUS representatives relied on the attached talking points in making their presentation.
